Thanksgiving HYMN SING November 25

Christmas Dinner December 20

I will ascend into heaven … I will exalt my throne … I will be like the most High. Isaiah 14:13-14

I will heal … I will love … I will [refresh]. Hosea 14:4-5

There is a stark contrast between the "I will" statements of the Lord in Hosea and the "I will" statements of Lucifer in Isaiah. Rather than being focused on self, the Lord's concern is for the good of others. Instead of self-promotion, He sought to serve others. When we are tempted to exert our own will or promote our own causes, let us remember the humble example that the Lord set for us, and seek the good of others. —Lynn Shatford

May the love of Jesus fill me, as the waters fill the sea;Him exalting, self abasing: this is victory. —Kate B. Wilkinson

This We Believe

God has revealed Himself in the Bible.

- It is the inspired and infallible Word of God, our sole and certain guide for all matters of belief and practice.

There is one God.

- He is Creator of all things.
- He is infinite, perfect, and eternally exists in three Persons - Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Jesus Christ is the Son of God, the second Person of the Godhead.

- He was virgin born, lived a sinless life, died for our sins, was buried and rose again.
- He ascended bodily into Heaven, is enthroned at God's right hand as our Great High Priest.
- He is coming again to Earth, first to receive His own, and then to reign.

All people need to be saved.

- Salvation has been purchased by the Lord Jesus Christ and is offered to us as the free gift of God.
- This salvation cannot be earned because it is of grace.
- It must be personally accepted by faith in Christ.

The Church is composed of all true believers in the Lord Jesus.

- Local gatherings of believers ought therefore to be non-denominational expressions of the Church.

The Lord Jesus left two ordinances with His Church - baptism and the Lord's Supper.

- Baptism by immersion depicts our death with Christ.
- The Lord's Supper proclaims Christ's death for us.
- Both ordinances are for the strengthening of the individual believer.

Heaven and Hell are both real and eternal.

- Every true child of God possesses eternal life and is safe for all eternity.
